

PLEASE BE ON GUARD
regarding false CGOA renewal notices

Do not be fooled. It has come to our attention that a "renewal" notice has been mailed to CGOA members for a subscription to Crochet! magazine by a company called Publishers Billing Exchange.

PLEASE NOTE that this company is NOT - I repeat, NOT - affiliated in any way with CGOA. Nor is Publishers Billing Exchange affiliated with Crochet! magazine.

If you respond with a renewal order to Publishers Billing Exchange, thinking that you are renewing your CGOA membership and member subscription, you are wrong! We do not want you to be misled. CGOA wants to make sure that you don't pay for a renewal that doesn't include your full CGOA benefits!

Any true CGOA membership renewal notice will always state clearly that it is from CGOA.

If you have any question regarding your CGOA membership renewal status, feel free to contact CGOA@Offinger.com or call CGOA headquarters at 740-452-4541.

January 2010